From the Chair:

Have you ever asked a question and then wished that you hadn't. I recently asked 'Why did we have X number of plays submitted last year for consideration when So & So had 30?'

Talk about opening Pandora's box. The simple answer is FUN! I have been a GLT member for eighteen years and I am into my fourth term on our Executive Committee. Having talked with several of our past directors, I have had answers of 'coffee cups' to 'no one to build the set' and everything in between. Yes we have our problems like any family, this one maybe a little more eccentric and dysfunctional with so many artistic personalities.

Is part of the problem that we have become too comfortable in our home at the Cambridge Arts Theatre. Our home for the past twenty-eight years. According to others, some of the fun groups have had to work hard to just get into their new home, or have been rebuilding after a disastrous fire. Someone the other day suggested that maybe we need a fire, and I thought for a ..... No we don't need a fire.

We are toying with the idea of changing our runs to three weeks of Friday, Saturday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday matinee, Friday, Saturday to lessen the stress of opening week of one day off in 9 days. The executive committee, we are open to new and old ideas who's time is right for now. We want to find ways to make putting on our shows more fun for the cast and crew, and ultimately our patrons. If you have any ideas, please come to our next general meeting on Thursday December 9th.
