CCP Play Submission Information
Cambridge Community Players are currently asking for play submissions for the 2014/15 season.

Everyone is welcome to submit plays they would like to see performed, however please indicate if you wish to direct the play.

To submit a play for consideration, place a script in the Playreading Committee inbox located in the dressing room at the theatre, or give it directly to a member of the Playreading Committee.

Please include your contact information, a synopsis of the play,
your ideas for the production and a proposed budget.

Also complete a play submission form and include it with your submission.

Forms are available on the bulletin board in the dressing room entrance, or on the Play Submission page of our web site.

We would also appreciate it if you would include a resume of your theatrical experience.

“Don't you love New York in the fall? It makes me want to buy school supplies. I would send you a bouquet of newly sharpened pencils if I knew your name and address.”

– Nora Ephron

Summer is gone. Time to pack away the 800-page beach novel, and the half-empty bottle of sunblock, and time to begin writing using well-worn end-of-summer clichés.

It has been a busy summer season in and around Cambridge. It all began in May with the 32nd Annual Bernice Adams Awards (Congratulations again, Lori Distel.), and continued with the Cambridge Arts Festival, the Mayor's Celebration of the Arts, the Cambridge Highland Games, the Mill Race Festival of Traditional Folk Music, A Day and a Night in Hespeler Village...the list goes on and I'm running out of breath just typing this.

Busy, eventful, hectic, jam-packed only begin to describe what transpired. The same can be said, as well, for events coming up this fall in Cambridge and environs.

The Cambridge Libraries is inviting you to Sunday Music @ the Library on Sunday, Oct. 20. Come out between 2-3pm and enjoy musical performances by students from Queen Street Music

Mark Saturday, Oct. 26 on your calendar and brace yourself for a Zombie Infestation and Halloween Howl in downtown Galt. Queen's Square will come “alive” as the undead prowl, lurk, and stagger towards the THRILLER groove of a zombie dance troupe led by local dance artist Michele Hopkins arriving through the streets of Downtown Cambridge via the Cambridge Market. Dance to raise funds and awareness of the YWCA's Self Image programs. Library staffs invite all ghoulish souls to Queen's Square throughout the day for a howling good time! Wear your costume to a special story time, and then watch a Halloween makeup artist in action.

Have fun and have a Happy October.
