LEADING LADIES

A Comedy by Ken Ludwig

Directed by Patsy McCleery

Two down-on-their-luck Shakespearean actors discover through a newspaper ad that Florence, an older ailing woman, has been unable to find Max and Steve, her sister’s children who moved away to England as infants. They decide to take on the roles. After all, inclusion in her multi-million dollar inheritance could turn things around. So when “Max” and “Steve” turn out to be “Maxine” and “Stephanie,” they continue on, undaunted, in drag. But when Leo falls for Florence’s actual niece Meg, and Jack swoons over Florence’s part-time aide Audrey, things become a little more complicated, and the laughs, well, they reach fever pitch. “Leading Ladies is consistently funny-indeed, increasingly hilarious as it progresses.” - Houston Chronicle

It has been a year of mixed emotions for the membership of Cambridge Community Players.

The summer saw long time CCP member Kathy Paul marry Marc Bilodeau.

This weekend coming will see the wedding of Rob Menage and Liz. The whole membership wishes them all the best

Pictures to follow??

Where were you 35 years ago?? Remember the 1st Terry Fox Marathon Hope? This year marks the 35th anniversary of Terry's attempt to run across Canada to raise funds for cancer research. Please join others members of your community at Riverside Park on Sunday September 20th to participate in the 35th ran/walk/cycle/bring you dog event. This year the Cambridge chapter of the Terry Fox Run is confident, with your help, to reach its goal of raising $ 35,000.00 to help battle this awful disease.

On a sadder note. Gilberta "Bert" Patrick and her family suffered the loss of her husband Dave. Frito Lay, the company Dave drove for have attached a memorial plaque to each of their fleet of trucks in memory of Dave. That in itself is an indication of how many people were touched by that wonderful person and mourn his loss.
